Holiday Greetings!

Here is the perfect gift for the Nintendo Fanatic. (And you know how hard they are to shop for!) The perfect gift and it's right here in this package!

To buy it, you don't have to set foot outside the house.

It won't keep you up late assembling on Christmas Eve.

It won't break down -- or be obsolete -- by January.

It costs less than a family outing to a fast-food restaurant, yet provides month after month of fun.

It's educational. And Nintendo Players think it's hot.

You don't have to wait for it to arrive.

Because it's right here! This perfect gift is a one-year subscription to Nintendo Power™, the ultimate players' magazine. (Just fill out the enclosed gift certificate and put it under the tree.)

Adventure with a benefit

Nintendo Power not only enhances the challenge and enjoyment of your family's Nintendo Entertainment System®. It's a valuable experience.

This colorful, entertaining magazine is packed with the sort of special features, contests, insider news, tips, tricks and fun that'll turn ordinary video game players into avid readers!

Just watch as your Nintendo fanatic gets behind the joystick to try out hints from the magazine.

You'll see why so many researchers, educators, scientists and psychologists now claim video games increase learning retention and comprehension...build self-esteem...and develop sensorimotor skills and hand-to-eye coordination.
